family was held at Ever Welcome cottage in East Belfast Sunday afternoon with forty present. A boiled dinner was served with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Curtis as host and hostess. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ervin H. Mixer of Providence, R. I., Mrs. Sarah Mixer, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mixer, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Rudy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Aldus of Lynn, Mass. A most enjoyable time is reported.

The Colonial Theatre is again this week offering a very high class program, notably among the prominent stars in the screen Firmamant are Gladys Walton, Eileen Percy, George Beban, Tsauru Aoki and Bessie Barriscale. Everyone should see Beban in One Man in a Million as this is one of this popular stars greatest pictures. In an interview recently Manager Clifford said "I will pit my program and presentation against any theatre in New England offering a six change a week program." The orchestra under the direction of Mr. William Freeman is coming along splendidly, and while it is utterly impossible for a team of musicians who are strangers to each other to get the most out of their playing it is the team work that counts, and in a few days I feel that I am going to show you a corking good team."

er history of the United States."

Miss Janet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. McLellan and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O. Poor of Belfast, has recently won blue ribbons on her pet horse, Black Beauty, at the Lexington, Mass., horse show—in the special saddle class and in the single driving class. Her pet's name is most appropriate—he is jet black and a beauty. He has seen army service, too, and was at Camp Devens. From there he was taken to Stockton Springs, where Mr. and Mrs. McLellan found him and presented him to their daughter as a gift on her graduation from the L. G. S. Miss Janet was admired by many as she rode in Northport and Belfast the past season.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sarnoff of New York were in this city at the Windsor Hotel over Sunday. Mr. Sarnoff is the general manager of the Radio Corporation of America, which has recently taken over the wireless station in this city. It has been decided to close for a period of six months the Belfast station pending new laws and the building of other plants. Chief Operator and Mrs. H. L. Hazelbaker will leave in a couple of weeks for New York, where he will be employed by the new company. Harvey Foust of this city will act as the caretaker of the Belfast plant and Orrin J. Dickey will represent the Company in this city as their agent, acting in a similar capacity as he did with the International Radio Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Blaisdell, who are unusually generous in sharing their pleasures with others, are now building in the rear of their beautiful home on High street a small amusement hall. The building is 50 feet long; has two wings 12 by 15 feet and a front projection room 19 by 20 feet. The room in the second floor will be well lighted and has a full length dormer window. The main building has two entrances and fourteen large windows. Those on the front are about five feet long the center section to be of one
